Re: Nathaniel Collins v. C.O. Tolwick, No. 14 Civ. 4533 (KMK)

Dear Litigant:

A review of the Court's records reveals that you are located at 588 E. 181st.
Bronx, New York. It appears, however, that you may have a new location at 10457 #10d. Please be advised that it is the responsibility of the parties to notify the Court as to any change in contact information. If you have a change of address, you must immediately notify the Court even if the change in your address is temporary. If your adversary has already been served with a copy of the summons and complaint you should also notify them. Please provide the information requested below and either return this letter to the Court, or complete and return the enclosed pre-paid postcard, if your location is no longer _____.

Please note that my change of address, which is effective as of: 1/21/15
(Date)
I have notified the other parties to my action.
